Visibility in Ankeny

With the beginning of a new year, start it off right by making your participation in the community a priority. The Ankeny Area Chamber of Commerce is committed to helping all members gain their share of the “market” whether you promote a product or service. The Chamber will continue to strive this year to offer many networking and sponsorship opportunities for you and your business to be visible and active in the community. Being present and a catalyst for the community will help market you, your business and your services. Don’t slow down in these times, participate in the community and let the businesses and residents learn about you.

You can't beat the personal attention, detail & service of DeJong Photography.

The Salvation Army's mission is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ and meet human needs in his name without discrimination. The scope of the Salvation Army is vast, touching nearly every segment of society and providing help, hope and healing for those who come within its sphere. You've seen the Red Kettle at Christmas, perhaps you have even thrown a few coins in the bucket. Although this welcome symbol appears in Ankeny for just a short while, its impact extends far beyond the holiday season-changing lives, one at a time, everyday, all year long.

Therapeutic Massage Center

Therapeutic Massage Center

Megan Sams ~ Owner
513 S.W. 3rd St.
Ankeny, IA 50023
(515) 964-3934

The Therapeutic Massage Center has been located in the heart of Uptown Ankeny since 1999. Everyday life presents us with many stresses and stress related pain. Massage therapy is available to help relieve these stresses. Everyday activities and movements also cause muscles to become tired and sore. Our licensed massage therapists use knowledge and massage therapy techniques to relax, invigorate and stimulate tired muscles as well as rehab soft tissue injuries. Techniques we offer include Swedish massage, deep tissue massage, acupressure, reflexology, hot stone massage, myofascial release and reiki. Our three licensed massage therapists are certified in pre-natal and post-partum massage. Our therapists incorporate essential oils and a relaxing, quiet environment. We are open Monday through Saturday days and evenings by appointment and can be reached at 964-3934. We also offer gift certificates for any of our services.
