Fashion By The HallTree in Urbandale was originally established in 2003 by Karen Tisue but was sold to Tami Smith, who became the new owner in April, 2010. As a previous business owner, Tami loved what Karen established. With such a great concept and product, Tami has since opened up four more stores, with locations in Sioux City, Pella, Ankeny and Cedar Rapids/Marion area. Being a mother of 4 daughters, Tami can't help but have a great passion for fashion. The HallTree has a great customer following with an exceptional staff. Going to market and hand picking items for the customer's all go hand in hand and make the HallTree a complete fashion experience. So come visit Fashion By The HallTree located in any of the locations mentioned above. It's now not only one of Des Moines' "best kept secrets" but in our opinion, one of Iowa's best kept secrets.

Congratulations Monsanto –Ankeny Site for achieving recognition from Region VII of the VPPPA!!

The STAR OF EXCELLENCE award was presented to the Monsanto-Ankeny site on Wednesday, May 9 at the Region VII Convention held at the Des Moines Marriott Hotel. The Star of Excellence Award is an award established to recognize VPP participants within Region VII with total case incidence rates (TCIR) and days away/restricted/transferred case incidence rates (DART) 90% below the BLS national average. The Monsanto-Ankeny site had no recordable injuries in 2011 and is mentoring Sysco in Ankeny on their VPP STAR effort. Congratulations to the employees at Monsanto-Ankeny on this achievement.
