College Pro Painters

It's summer. You know your house needs a new coat of paint. Luckily, you don't have to be that guy who wishes he had a fresh coat of paint, because I can fix that. The name is Michael Donlin and I'm your help-my-house-needs-a-new-coat-of-paint-guy!

After four years at Iowa State, I learned my construction engineering degree did little to satisfy the entrepreneur "bug" I had caught. After investing time into crazy business start ups and even flipping two houses, I decided it was time to put my experience to the test. This summer, I am running and operating a College Pro franchise in the Ankeny area. College Pro is a unique painting company focusing on youth and producing high-quality paint jobs. My personal goal is not just to give my customers a paint job that they will love, but also build relationships and make the world more awesome. Interested in making your world more colorful this summer? Give me a ring at 641-226-8472.
